Sheriff Michael Angel

(The Obtuse Sheriff)

Michael Angel is Rush Summit's local sheriff, and is in control of the local prison, as well as his fleet of law enforcers. Despite this prestigious position, his small-town sheriff duties do not keep him very busy, so he spends most of his free time in his office playing the Desperate Housewives computer game and carving animals from the bars of soap in the bathroom. He enjoys attending the opera with his wife, Tiyana Angel, and was excited to hear about the special, last-minute production of Carmen.

Tiyana Angel

(The Forensics Specialist)

Tiyana Angel, wife of Sheriff Michael Angel, has always been fascinated with justice and has dedicated her life to forensics. As a forensic specialist, she is one of the top agents in her field and has a mind like a sponge, able to absorb anything she hears or reads and commit it to memory. In her spare time, when she is not examining evidence, Tiyana enjoys pouring a glass of red wine and watching CSI for the sole reason of picking out the procedural errors on the show.

Diana Ivory

(The Entrepreneur)

Diana is a budding florist. She only recently moved to Rush Summit and opened her own flower shop in the downtown core. Diana loves being her own boss and is enjoying her new life, especially attending the opera. Diana inherited her elite membership to the Rush Summit Opera Guild from a deceased aunt. She always attends the performances alone and rarely speaks to anyone.

Katrina Rosenberg

(The Production Benefactor)

Katrina is a nurse by trade, but a traveler when she can spare the time. She also loves the opera, and is such a renowned member of the Rush Summit Opera Guild that she was able to arrange the exclusive performance of Carmen for The Guild's elite members - at her own expense.
